To Whom It May Concern,

Sub: Jonathon Copeland

Jonathon Copeland was employed at L3 Communications – Link Simulation and Training in the capacity of a Coop Student working with the Research and Development Group. Jonathon was a sincere, hard-working employee of our organization. We were always satisfied with his performance.

Jonathon obtained a great experience during his employment making him an asset to the company and I believe he will continue to be so for whichever organization he is working. I recommend anyone looking for a coop/intern with a game and simulation programming background to consider Jonathon. Please let me know if you need further information.
